| EMIGRANT INDUSTRIAL SAYINGS BANK, 51 CHAMMERS ST., NEW YORK, Jan. 5, 1891. |

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Emigrant Industrial Sayings Bank, held this day, the President, Mr. James olwell, announced to the Board the death of the First Vice President, Mr. Edward C. Donnelly, which occurred at his residence in this city on Sanday, January 4.

On motion, the following resolutions, prepared by the undersigned committee, were unanimously adopted as the expression of the feelings of the Board:—

Board:—
Resolved. That the members of this Board have received with deep sorrow the insolligence of the death of Mr. Edward C. Doonedly, a trustee of this institution for nearly twenty-eight years, who, as member and chairman of the Finance Committee and Second and First Vice President, zealously, ably and disinterestedly promoted, through his long service, the prosperity of this institution and its depositors.

long service, the prespectty of this institution and its depositors.

A man of marked intelligence, of clear business judgment, of sterling integrity and worth of char-acter, of kindly and accomplished manner, his faculties were, in accordance with the promptings of an unselfish mature, devoted mainly to the field of philauthropic work which this and other in-stitutions with which he became connected, af-forded.

forded.

As a citizen he was prominently identified with the cause of education and of charity.

His decease leaves void a place in this institution and in the community which will not easily be filled.

JAMES RORKE.

IBME EMIGRAT SOCIETY, 51 CHAMBERS ST., NEW YORK, Jan. 5, 1891.

By the death of Mr. Edward C. Donnelly the Irish Emigrant Society has lost its first vice president and one of its earliest members.

Connected with the organization since 1847, he took an active part in its work and held various offices, the duties of which were always faithfully discharred. He was a vice president for more than twenty-five years and for a long period chairman and member of the Finance Committee.

Keenly alive to the welfare of Irish emigrants, he not only manifested at all times a deep interest in the success of all measures for their assistance, but also shared the labors of his associates in all efforts for their greater security and protection.

In recognition of these services, as well as of the high personal character of our late associate, be it
